KENTUCKY'S SHAME.

(Richmond Madisonian.)

While the Legislature is dabbled with investigations of State institutions, let it ponder over the following facts:

Material used in the production of whiskey:

Kentucky, 1st.

Massachusetts, 15th.

In education:

Massachusetts, 1st.

Kentucky, 42nd.

Then after it studies the foregoing propositions and comparison, let it do something to kill off the manufacture of liquor and to stop the liquor traffic.

The bread of the people is being turned into whiskey. We have no statistics before us giving the amount of corn and barley raised in Kentucky, nor the amount of native corn and barley that is converted into alcoholic liquors, but we know without statistics that the amount is a very large one.

When that which is essential to the proper nourishment of the people is taken from them and converted into something that is highly detrimental to them, both physically, mentally, morally, it is high time for the Legislature to interfere, and to prohibit the manufacture of alcoholic beverages.

A large portion of the best farming land of the state of Kentucky is devoted to the raising of tobacco, which gives no nourishment to the people. This reduces the acreage of corn and barley. Then, when it is taken in consideration the large amount of corn and barley converted into stimulating drinks, it may be readily seen that fully one-half of the state of Kentucky is given over to an industry that cannot be profitable to the state in any way. That which degrades and lowers the citizenship of a state, is highly inimicable to its progress.

George Ade says that when a man has to buy back his self-respect, the price is never too high. It may cost the state of Kentucky something in actual dollars and cents to prohibit the manufacture of liquors in its borders, but the price will not be too great for it to pay to purchase back its self-respect. The amount paid out annually for intoxicating liquors would clothe, feed and educate every child in the state of Kentucky to the highest point of efficiency and good citizenship.

No Excuse.

The hog market has been steadily though slowly climbing in the city market until some grades are now bringing as high as 9 cents on the Cincinnati market. Cattle at Mt. Sterling Monday sold as high as 9 cents, by the head. Eight cents by weight was the ruling price for steers and many refused to take this price. With cattle and hogs selling at nine cents, there is but little excuse for the farmers' kank accounts of swindling, or for the farmer voting the Republican ticket.

More Small-Pox.

As we were congratulating ourselves upon the recovery of the one case of small-pox in the county, we learn that Bert Hammons is stricken with the disease at the home of his father, John Hammons near this city. Bert caught the disease at Lexington two weeks before. Dr. Martin has the patient in charge, and Dr. Williams, member of the State Board of Health has taken hold of the situation to prevent, as far as possible, a further spread of the disease. This means vaccination of all exposures in particular and every other individual in the county, then it is over.

Cash without Discount.

The old Confederate veteran pensioners will get their vouchers cashed this time without discount. The State hasn't the money, but John C. C. Mayo has agreed to pay them the ready cash without discount if they will send their checks to the Paintville National Bank at Paintville. This is certainly a most generous act on the part of Kentucky's money king. If more men of wealth would perform more deeds of real charity like this, they would be regarded as a benefit to society rather than a menace.

In Memoriam.

The pretty little village of Maben, in Wyoming county, W. Va., lost by death on January 28th one of its most respected christian women, Mrs. Bessie Stewart, wife of Butler Stewart, 33 years of age, noted in church circles as a personal worker ready always to comfort the sick, a gifted Sunday school teacher, always found in her place in the Bible study class on Wednesday night, also a regular church attendant and a liberal christian doing all in her power to promote unity in her community. She was born in Clay City, Ky., and at the age of fifteen she joined the Christian church. Two years ago she transferred her membership to the Beckley Christian church. While attending a revival meeting at Maben on Sunday night, January 25th, she was suddenly stricken with paralysis, living only three days and speaking only once calling her husband by name. Apparently in very good health, God called her home. She was a firm believer in the Blessed hope—Titus 2:13 Living in Him, daily watching, patiently waiting for the "Coming One." It is said of Christ's disciples after His ascension that they were continually in the temple praising and blessing God—Luke 24:53. Such was her blessed end.

She leaves a husband, two brothers and three sisters. Her remains were taken to Clay City, Ky. where the funeral services were held in the Christian church on Saturday, January 31st, 1914. The funeral party from Maben consisted of the husband, one brother, Mr. N. C. Walters, of Winchester, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mosby, Mrs. Henry V. Peck, and the resident Pastor.

Mr. Stewart, for several years, has been a trusted and highly respected employee of the W. M. Ritter Lumber Co. This entire community sympathize with brother Stewart in his bereavement.

Rev. J. E. Healy.

Papers Miscarried.

For some cause or other our papers last week for the Waltersville postoffice were miscarried and did not reach their point of destination. These papers were mailed with the others and their failure to reach our subscribers at Waltersville is no fault of ours. As this is the first complaint from this office or any other office in the county, we will have to excuse the mail clerks on the train for their, we are sure, unintentional failure to get them to the right office. The only wonder is that errors of this kind do not happen oftener. On former occasions we have had considerable trouble in getting our paper to subscribers in other counties and states, but such has not been the case in this county.

In this particular, however, one subscriber in a neighboring county seat, who has been on our list since the first issue of the paper more than eighteen years ago, wrote us a few weeks ago that he had not failed to get the Times a single week for twelve years. This is a good record, and one that is hard to beat.

Tomlinson-Johnson.

Mr. Chas. F. Tomlinson and Miss Ada Johnson surprised their many friends Wednesday morning by getting married. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. Judge L. F. Mann and the happy pair left on the 7:12 train for Cincinnati, Ohio, and Detroit to spend their honeymoon. They will get to Bay City, Mich., to visit Mr. Tomlinson's home folks in about four weeks.

The bride is one of Clay City's prettiest and most lovable young ladies, while Mr. Tomlinson is a fine young man of good morals, temperate in habits, and of good business sagacity.

The friends of the young couple are as numerous as their acquaintances, and they are extended royal congratulations.

Spring Announcement.

See the Spring announcement of H. F. Hillenmeyer & Sons, the Lexington nurserymen, and plan to send them an order for something in their line that you will need this Spring. This firm will give you the best goods for less money than the agents, and give your orders prompt attention. Write today for their catalog if you have not already got one.

"Go to Church Sunday."

"Go to church Sunday" is a subject of considerable agitation in some of our exchanges. This is a move in the right direction and we hope to see the sentiment strike Clay City. It is far better to attend church on Sunday than to loaf on the streets.

Big Tide in Sight.

As we go to press the river is bank full and it is steadily rising. The melting snow from the mountains together with the falling rain is sure to bring a big bottom sweeping tide.

Cash Doesn't Figure.

Where's Cash? In all the published proceedings of the General Assembly, rough stuff and otherwise, we have not yet seen where our member figured.—Estill Tribune.

STANTON NEWS.

Mrs. Telford Abner has recovered from a five week's siege of grip and was out Sunday for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Blunt are visiting at Gordonton this week at the home of Mr. Blunt's brother-in-law.

Miss Helen Welch, Mary Martin and Mrs. Ruth Mapel were visitors in Mt. Sterling last week, returning home Tuesday.

Mrs. Mollie Crawford returned to her home Monday after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hardwick.

Ross Hall and Hardwick's store filled their ice houses this week from the pond at Mr. Hall's place. The ice was a fairly good quality.

Mrs. D. R. Clark is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Myrtice Conlee, for a week. She will assist them in moving from their home at Paris to their new home near Lexington.

Miss Esther Broad gave a party to the Junior Endavor Society Saturday afternoon and a splendid time was had by all that attended. Miss Olga Morton carried off the prize for having the best home made valentine.

Rev. J. C. Hanley and his wife will give their respective Sunday school classes an evening of entertainment this coming Friday evening. Rev. Wm. Cummins, of Winchester, will be one of the guests and deliver an address to the classes.

Dr. J. E. Lemming returned from a three week's visit to Cincinnati, the springs at Dry Ridge and other points of interest. He reports the springs at Dry Ridge as fine for the cure of rheumatism and expects to return soon to resume the treatment.

The writer has received a letter from Prof. E. W. Welch and wife, and they are located on a farm at Burgettstown, Pa. To begin with they have twenty head of Holstein cows, forty head of hogs and a lot of chickens, and they are enjoying the farm life immensely. They wished to be remembered to their many friends in Stanton.

The Legislature at Frankfort will probably pass one good bill at this session and that is to make it a felony to carry a pistol. For the first offense the guilty person will be disfranchised for two years from voting and for the second offense he will be sent to the penitentiary. We hope this bill passes as it is greatly needed. Our country could get along very well if nobody was to carry them.

The City Fathers met last Friday night and considered the welfare of the town. They have been busy paying off old debts contracted by the old members of the council. They are almost out of debt now and soon can make needed improvements in the town. We hope that the citizens will have patience and as soon as money is collected it will be put to good use. We trust that no one will refuse to pay their taxes now as they have in the past. The writer was surprised to find the names of some who are refusing to pay their taxes when he met with the members of the council last week. Let us all pay our taxes and help put the town in as good fix as we can.

Mr. Tomlinson, of Clay City, was a visitor at the Court House Tuesday and there secured a slip of paper from the County Clerk, and then hastened back to Clay City to consult Miss Ada Johnson further. We understand that Cupid was the cause of his visit here, and we trust by this time has finished his important job. The readers of the Stanton news extend their congratulations. Among other caprices of Cupid was the marriage of Mr. William Barnes, of Hatcher's Creek, and Miss Georgia Johnson of some place. Also, Miss Susie Hardwick, daughter of S. H. Hardwick, of Stanton, and Mr. O. H. Jones, of Mt. Sterling. They will make their home near Mt. Sterling. Also, Mr. John West, of Bowen, came to Stanton and secured a license to marry Miss Banie Ashley, of South Fork.

Miss Anna Hardwick entertained at her home Friday evening in honor of her guests, Miss Mary White, of Winchester, and Miss Ruth Eaton, of Clay City. Miss Hardwick was assisted in receiving by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Hancock, of Richmond, Va. The hostess was beautifully gowned in pale blue satin, veiled with shell pink chiffon. Miss White wore a gown of black crepe de chine trimmed in burnt orange. Miss Eaton wore a creation of salmon pink satin, veiled with dew drop chiffon, and Miss Hancock was gowned in Copenhagen blue crepe de chine. Music and games were features of the evening. Hot chocolate, candy and fruit, were served. The guests were: Misses Mary White, Ruth Eaton, Elizabeth Hancock, Minnie Conlee, Labe Knox and Anna Clark Messers. Harry Russell, John Eaton, Carl Welch, Richard Crow, Bert Crow, Marion Atkinson and Jouett Boone. (Contributed.)

Several of our young men were arrested last week for jumping on and off the trains and were fined Tuesday one dollar and costs and put on their good behavior not to do so any more. We are glad to see a stop put to this very dangerous practice that some of our young men got into. We have shuddered at times to see a young man catch a moving train and ride a little piece and it is a wonder that some one has not been hurt or killed long before this. And we are glad to see that the agent has posted up a notice in the depot not to allow any loafing or smoking in the waiting room. This is another step in the right direction. Last week on a cold day the writer counted twelve young men smoking cigarettes in the waiting room and the atmosphere was something awful in that room. It happened there were no women present but if one had come to the train she could not have stood it in there. Many, many times this past year have girls and women come to the house of the writer to wait for a train because of the smoking in the waiting room and so many boys and men loafing there. It is a shame that conditions exist so that our women folks cannot go to the depot and wait for a train in the waiting room. If the men folks have to loaf and smoke, then we hope they will stay on the outside, where there is more room for such things. We hope the agent will enforce the rule against these things.

CLUB RATES.

For the convenience of our subscribers, we have arranged club rates with the following papers at prices below mentioned:

The Times and
" Cincinnati Enquirer	$1.00
" Louisville Herald	1 00
" Home and Farm	80
" Inland Farmer	80
" Southern Agriculturist	80

The Times said in its issue two weeks ago that it was the only paper agitating a 2-cent railroad fare. We thought this was true, but are mistaken and hasten to offer the proper apologies to Mr. Grant E. Lilly, editor of the Richmond Madisonian which has the following to say bearing on the two cent fare:

"The House has shown its mettle and has overruled the committee which reported adversely the bill to reduce railroad fares from three cents to two cents. This came as quite a surprise to the committee, and shows that the Legislature is doing some thinking of its own.

"There is no reason why this bill should not become a law. The railroads of the State of Kentucky have long since passed the experimental stage, and their large earnings show that the people should be given relief in this respect. A two cent rate prevails in many of the states, and there is no reason why Kentucky should lag behind in giving the people relief. Surely no question of confiscation of property could be involved in this, as the large passenger traffic has demonstrated beyond a doubt that a rate of this kind would afford the railroads a reasonable income from the passenger service alone.

"At any rate the action of the House in showing its teeth to the committee should be highly commended. We have had enough of legislation in Kentucky by committees. The object of referring a bill to a committee is merely to allow it to be investigated and see that it is properly drawn and consistent in its features. Their private opinion about its merits is a matter of little consequence."

When this county was a part of the Tenth Congressional district, and at a time when John Langley was a Republican candidate for Congress, he asked for votes on the promise that he would get Congress to build turnpikes in the mountain counties of his district, whereupon he was thereafter called "Turnpike" John and "Promissory" John. Now that Congress has made a small appropriation conditioned that the States put up a like amount, John says it is his time to laugh.

But John, the turnpikes are not yet here and to get them the States must put up as much as the Government, and the counties must put up as much as both the State and Government, thus it looks to us that you are far from fulfilling your promise, and your claiming the laugh now only makes another one on you. And further, say, if you are going to be responsible for these pikes, we want to know why you didn't get them when the Republicans were in control, and when you boasted of your influence with Joe Cannon and other great Republican leaders instead of waiting until the Democrats came into power.

The Jackson Commercial Club following in wake of the Lexington, has passed resolutions against the Finn railroad bill, which puts the fixing of rates into the hands of the Railroad Commission where it should be. Jackson seems willing to allow the railroads to run away with the Kentucky Constitution, and too much of the people's money for charges, in order to get the good will of the railroads. Our observation is that self-respect and home protection is always admired by our opponents more than humble submission to wrong by mealy-mouthed bodies or individuals.

The railroad business is a business conducted by the railroads and the people. If the railroads fix the rates as they now do, they are too high. The people would fix them too low. What we need is the Railroad Commission as a referee. Let this Commission fix rates that will yield a good dividend on the real value of the roads, not the rated stock of the roads. Then to fix the value for profits in rates on the same basis as the roads set for taxation.

There is but little doubt that State and Federal aid for roads is right now at our door, and our county must get busy to meet the requirements and get the good roads. We want Powell county to take the lead of the mountain counties in roads and to do this we must be ready to strike the first blow.

To meet the issue we must be ready to vote the necessary bonds soon as the time ripens. There should be no drawbacks or hesitation on the part of any one, but all pull together, taking no thought of whether the road will come by our door or our neighbor's door and not ours. The Times is for the roads, regardless of where they go, just so they are in the county. Selfish acts and deeds have kept many counties in the rear of progress. This shall not be the case with Powell county if the Times can do anything to prevent it.

The Times has nothing against corporations. We welcome them when they treat the people right. A frigid corporation need expect nothing else but cool treatment. Corporations that stand identified with the interests of the mass of the people deserve the public patronage and commendation. These are corporations like Broadhead-Garrett Company, the Clay City National Bank and Day Lumber & Coal Company. Either of these concerns will put up as much cash to help local enterprises as any citizen of equal wealth. How different with some other corporations doing business in the county. Doing thousands of dollars every year and have never yet helped the county a cent. Do you wonder that they are censured and condemned?

D. B. Shackelford, the Missouri Congressman, and author of the Federal Good Roads bill which passed the lower branch of Congress last week, visited Frankfort Monday and addressed the General Assembly in the interest of Good Roads legislation now pending in the Legislature. The address was most favorably received by our Solons, and it is believed that the State will render aid to counties before another year passes.

The Times is glad to see from our Stanton correspondent that the law is being put to the miniature hoboes at Stanton. Every town has them in abundance and Clay City is no exception. We would like to see a few of the boys here fined for jumping on and off trains. And our depot needs a little clearing out quite frequently, though not so much as in former years, for our efficient agent has been doing his best to rid the waiting room of loafers.

The State Farmers' Institute will meet at Frankfort next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, February 24, 25 and 26. A most interesting program has been prepared. Every farmer who can possibly do so should attend. The Legislature being in session, those attending may avail for themselves the opportunity of attending these sessions part of the time while in the capital.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Emerson Conlee visited his father, J. W. Conlee, near Kiddville Sunday and attended court at Mt. Sterling Monday.

We have had a good ice season this week and many took advantage of it by filling their ice houses with ice about four inches thick.

Sunday will be Washington's birthday, a legal holiday. It falling on Sunday this year, Monday will be observed as a holiday, instead.

Saturday was the worst day of last week. The same can be said of the three last Saturdays. We hope that "the third time the charm" rule will apply in this case.

The ground hog forecast is proving true so far, but may prove to be a false profit in time for our good housewives to sow an early lettuce bed and put out a few onions.

Almost twenty applicants for the postoffices at Clay City, Stanton and Bowen took the civil service examination at Stanton Friday. Six of the applicants were from Clay City.

Tom Rose has recovered from an attack of small-pox and was released by his physician, Dr. Johnson, several days ago. There is not another case in the county that we know of.

For the past few weeks our job press has been slightly out of repair and we have been unable to do certain kinds of job printing. We have our press fixed now and are prepared to print letter heads, note heads, statements and envelopes as formerly. Send in your orders.

Robert McIntosh, of near Irvine, was here yesterday on business.

Mrs. Clarence Hazelrigg, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Kerns, of Lexington, and Judge O'Rear's family at Frankfort, returned home Sunday much improved by her trip.

Wm. Piersall will have a public sale Tuesday of next week and move to Blackey, Letcher county, where he will engage in the goods business. See notice of sale in this issue of the Times and posters.

No Badge of Honor for the Real Deserving.

Many a soldier who bravely stood at his post during the civil war, is covered with badges. We would not take one from him, he merits them; but many an "ordinary" woman has stood at her post of duty for thirty, forty, or even half a century, fighting with sickness, poverty and discouragement and with true Spartan courage kept the wolf from the door and saved the lives of a large family of children. The man who saves one life receives a prize for bravery, his picture appears in the metropolitan papers, and he wears a medal which says to the world that he was brave. And he was. But the woman who has saved the lives of many is given no badge, and seldom a word of commendation. These "ordinary" women may not receive a Carnegie badge for bravery, but "He who marks the sparrows fall" will certainly reserve a jeweled crown for them in heaven.

The Worst Habit for Boys.

The worst habit that boys can fall into is that of loafing around on the streets at night. It is then they cast their lot in slippery places when at any moment they are likely to fall from grace. All good and noble lessons taught them by their mothers are there counteracted and nullified. They learn nothing that is good—but everything bad. The boys who spend their evenings in the sacred precincts of home with good books for their companions are the future hope of the republic; they will fill our legislative and congressional halls, and sit in judgment upon man and measures, while the boys who run the streets will fill our penitentiaries, almshouses and lunatic asylums. Parents who are responsible for these broken laws of decency will have broken hearts and bowed down heads in the awakening years that will inevitably follow.

Fire did considerable damage to the Mt. Sterling Advocate plant Tuesday. The fire originated in the attic, and was caused by a live electric wire connected to the power motor used to drive the machinery in the printing department of that paper.

A Slump in the Consumption of Beer.

Looks as if beer drinking is on the decline in the United States. Uncle Sam produces the figures to prove it.

According to the report of the internal revenue commissioner for the fiscal year, there was a decrease in the output of beer of 1,106,429 barrels compared with the previous year.

That's a big decrease. Counting 30 gallons to the barrel, and there are more, it means a slump of 33,192,870 gallons.

Counting only 10 glasses to the gallon, it means a decrease of 331,928,700 drinks.

Counting each drink 5 cents, it shows that $16,596,435 less was spent for beer in 1912 than in 1911.

There was an increase in the production of whiskey, but the bonded warehouses are filled with the stuff, and distillers are all "fussed up" because the supply is far exceeding the demand.

Americans are not all on the water wagon by any means, but more of them are climbing aboard right along.—American Issue.

A Modest Request.

Backward turn backward, O Time, in thy flight give us a girl with skirts not so tight; give us a girl whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the street for a vaudeville stage; give us a girl not too shapely in view; dress her in skirts the sun cannot shine through. Give us the dances of days gone by, with plenty of clothes and steps not so high; put turkey trot capers and buttermilk slides, hurdy-gurdy twists and wiggle-tail glides, and other such bunny hugs, all on a level as products of hell, inspired by the devil, and let us feast our optics once more on the pure, sweet woman of the days of yore. Yes, Time, turn backward and grant our request for man's richest blessing, but not undressed.

One U. S. Marshal's Experience.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Coleman, of Somerset, went into office in 1897—sixteen years ago—and has held the place continuously ever since with the exception of four years when he served as chief deputy sheriff of Pulaski county. During this period Coleman has arrested almost 2,400 offenders. He has arrested 31 alleged preachers, 15 doctors, 10 lawyers and 71 women. They were charged with every offense known, most of them for "hoot-legging," moonshining, counterfeiting, sending obscene matter through the mails, for contempt of court, and for almost every other crime under the sun. Most of the "preachers" arrested were mountaineers charged with making or selling "moonshine" whiskey.

Farm Drain Tile

Make Your Wet Land Productive.

By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work. It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. Write for particulars or call at our plant.
